Saturday, October 4. 1718.

From the Hague Courant, dated Oct. 3.

Madrid, September 3.

TH E R E has been another Insurrection of the common People at the Havana, on this Occasion ; the General of the Flota sent Orders to the Bishop of the Place to come on board, and return with him to Spain, to give an Account of his Behaviour during the Time of the Insurrection last Year, upon Occasion of the Imposition on Tobacco. But the People would not permit their Bishop to go away, and made great Disturbance thereupon. But the Magistrates, and those of the new Government having sent to the General, to desire that the Bishop might not be carried away till the King's further Orders be known, he complied with their Request, and then the Populace were quiet. The President of the Crusada is now put at the Head of the Inquisition, in Place of the Inquisitor-General Molines, to take Care of it, during the Time of his continuing Prisoner at Milan. 'Tis assur'd, that the Marquis de Pozzobueno, late Gouvernour of Porto Longone, will go as Minister and Plenipotentiary of our Court, to the King of Sweden.

From the Amft. Gazette, dated Oct. 4.

Hamburg, Sept. 30. Letters from Stockholm of the 3d of this Month advise, that Baron Gortz was pass'd by there going to the King at Stromstadt, and that his Majesty has named General Rheinschild for his third Plenipotentiary, because the Czar has now three Plenipotentiaries at Aland. Other Letters from Stockholm of a fresher Date, say that Baron Gortz pass'd by there the 13th, returning to Aland with the necessary Instructions for concluding a Peace. We have just now receiv'd Advice of two Actions in Norway, whereof we expect the Particulars. 'Tis said a Minister of the Czar's is gone to the King of Sweden.

Cologne, Sept. 30. We are assur'd, that the Fortres of Rhynfels will be evacuated in eight Days, and that the Emperour has named General d' Isselbach for Gouvernour of that Place. The Elector Palatine has nam'd Colonel Norpath for Gouvernour of Mannheim. They write from Francfort, that Sir John Vernon, late Minister of his Britanique Majesty with the King of Poland, is arrived there from Dresden, returning to London.

From the Hague Courant, dated Oct. 5.

Brussels, Oct. 3. The 1st Instant being the Emperour's Birth-day, who then enter'd the 34th Year of his Age, the Marquis de Prié received the Compliments of all the Nobility thereupon ; a solemn Mass was sung in the Cathedral Church, and the Cannons were three times fired ; the same was repeated in the Evening, and the Garrison made likewise a triple Salvo of the Musketry.

Paris, Oct. 8. An Arrêt of the Court of Parliament is publish'd, bearing Date Oct. 3, and setting forth, that this Day the King's Attorney-General, and M. Germain Louis Chavelin, the King's Advocate, enter'd the Court, and appeal'd from the Pope's Decree, (as from an Abuse) intituled, Sanctissimi Domini nostri Domini Clementis dicimus Providentia XI. Literæ ad universos Christi fideli, datae adversus eos qui Constitutioni Sanctitatis sue que incipit UNIGENITUS... debitam Obedientiam præstare haecenus recusaverint, aut in posterum recusaverint. The Attorney made the Speech, wherein he declar'd, that the Letters (above-mentioned) published at Rome the 8th of September last, are so contrary to the Canons of the Church, and the Maxims of the Kingdom, that they could not be silent upon such an Occasion, without betraying the most important of their Duties. And then by an ample Deduction of Arguments, set forth the Illegality, the Injustice, and the Unreasonableness of this Decree, and the Authority therein assum'd over the King's Subjects. Which the Court having heard, and having caused the said (printed) Letters or Decree of the Pope to be read, and taken the same into Consideration, they resolv'd as follows :

The Chamber has received, and doth receive the King's Attorney-General appealing as from an Abuse, and ordains, that they will proceed upon the Appeal in the usual Manner, on the Mortow after St. Martin ; and in the mean time, enjoyn all those who have any Copies of the said Letters, to bring them to the Greffier of the Court. Forbid all Persons to Print, Sell, Utter, or otherwise distribute them. They make the like Inhibition and Prohibition to all Archbishops and Bishops, their Vicars or Officials, and to all Rectors of Universities, and and their Agents, all Ecclesiastical Bodies and Communities, and all others, to receive, read, publish, cite, print, distribute, or otherwise directly or indirectly put in Execution, in any Manner, or upon any Pretence whatsoever, the said Letters and Decree; or in like Manner, any other Bulls, Briefs, or any other Expeditions from the Court of Rome, without the King's Letters Patents, register'd in Court to ordain the Publication, excepting nevertheless, Letters Penitentiary, Provisions to Benefices, and other ordinary Expeditions concerning private Affairs, which are obtain'd in the Court of Rome, according to the Ordonnances and Customs of the Kingdom; upon the Penalty of being treated as Disturbers of the Publick Repose. And also all Booksellers, Printers, Hawkers, and others, are forbid to Print or cause to be printed, sold, utter'd, or otherwise distributed, any Bulls, Briefs, or other Expeditions of the Court of Rome, without the King's Letters Patents register'd in Court, ordaining the Publication, upon the Penalty of 500 Livres Forfeiture, and loss of their Freedom or Power of exercising their Trade, and other great Penalties. Order that the present Arrêt shall be sent into the Bailiwicks and Seneschalices of the Jurisdiction, to be there read, publish'd and register'd, and affix'd in all Places where necessary: The Substitutes of the King's Attorney General are enjoin'd to assist in the due Execution of the Premises, and make Certification thereof to the Court in a Month. Done in Parliament in Vacation, the 3d Day of October 1718.

Signed Gilbert.
